

Worksheet for “Look” and “See”

The word “look” will usually be followed by a word like “at” or “for.” This answers the question “where” you fix your eyes. Examples are “look at the clock,” and “look for my keys.”

The word “see” will usually be followed by a noun. This is the thing you fix your eyes on. Examples are “see the table,” and “I see you.”

Instructions:

Here are 10 Bible verses with blanks to fill in. Use “look” or “see” to make the sentence correct. When you’re done, check the last page for answers.
